The China Itlail. HONOKONG, THURSDAY, AUGUST 26, 1886.

WE have already referred to what may fairly be termed the ill-timed complaisance of the unofficial members of the Legislative Council, and have pointed out the pernicious effect produced at Home by this tendency to give way upon vital points. Several instances of this misplaced good-nature have been exposed in these columns, where the representatives of the public have clearly stultified themselves and the Community whom they represent. The particular instance to which attention will now be drawn is the matter of the Loan Ordinance. 11.30 A.M. When the Post Office closes This bill was, like most other important measures, referred to the Finance Committee; and the motion to that effect was passed at the meeting of Council held on the 21st October of last year. Of the discussion that took place on this ordinance, no record is, of course, presented to the public; and it is only from the report made by the Committee (under date of 4th November) that the opinon of that body is obtained. That opinion, however, is of the clearest and most unequivocal character. It is as follows :---

The Acting Colonial Secretary then read the following report drawn up by the Finance Committee on the proposed Loan

'Proposed by the Honourable the Chief

'That, considering the present unsettled value of silver, and more especially the steady depreciation of it which has taken is highly dangerous and inexpedient for this silver-using Colony to contract any past, a heavy loss in exchange is almost sure to be sustained. 'That instead of adopting such a course, peace for six months.

it is desirable that the Government raise money for its requirements by issuing, from time to time, from the Tressury in Hongkong, Debentures bearing interest other day by the Water Police on a charge some small return for the many, many faat the annual rate of five per cent, thus avoiding costs and commissions of every kind, as well as the risk of loss on exchange. besides being free from all the expenses connected with the issue of debentures or stock at home, except for printing and stationery, will add to the Revenue of the labour. Colony in Stamp Duty and in other ways, and moreover the Government will be in a position, from time to time, to redeem its demption of the loan than would be possible under the proposed Ordinance. The charge may be required. 'The Committee therefore resolve that it

So the matter was supposed by some to have been disposed of. This report was presented for approval at the meeting of Council held on the 7th April last; and as it is lately put up at Soul. It has been found. Document which is almost unique in that the expense of keeping that concern gothe annals of so-called representative government, here it is :--

. The Committee, although still thinking that for many reasons, it would be pre ferable to raise the money locally, especially as there is now reason to believe that funds could be obtained here at 44 cent., thus avoiding all risk of loss on Exthe proposal of the Secretary of State that the Loan should be issued in London, provided that a 4 per cent. Loan can be issued not below par.

It would indeed be difficult to conceive of a more entire and deliberate surrender of one's convictions than this must have been to every one who voted for the resolution passed on the 4th of November of the previous year. No particular exception can be taken to the WE have not yet heard as to the fate of the action of the official members, as the indication given in the Secretary of State's despatch was clear chough as to how they were expected to act. But the unofficial members here lost an opportunity of asserting themselves, and of intimating to that the woman was aided in her plans the Colonial Office that they were not by her son, who was born in the mere puppets to be ordered about to suit the convenience of the Crown Agents. The representatives of the community in Council having missed this opportunity, generally the brutal ling-che, or cutting-up and unity in stultification having thereby been attained, a second Loan Ordinance was thereupon introduced, and, having gone through its stages, it was finally passed on the 21st of April. This bill has since received the sanction of Her Majesty. 'Let us all be unanimous as the Irishman said; but it will be wel for the unofficial members of our local Parliament to bear in mind that they are and ought to be diametrically op- a cage. posed to all arbitrary and mistaken official action. It is to be hoped that we have seen the last of this feeble compliance with official wishes, although it is unquestionable that part of the blame for its existence in the post must be credited to public indifference.

woman in Kowloon City who was convicted of attempting to hang her husband. The only additional information we can learn with regard to the matter is absence of the husband in California. The punishment for such an offence is process. As far as we can learn no one has recently been immolated in this fashion at Kowloon. Probably the woman may at the last moment have got somebody to stump up the needful. We hear that the Cantonese authorities are at present subjecting a noturious highwaymen named Lai Lo Heung to the revolting death of suspension by the hands and starvation in Our morning contemporary gives publicity to a rumour to the effect that Sir Robert Hart, the Inspector General of Oustoms, who has just returned from Macao, has been entirely successful in making an arrangement for the collection of duty akin to that proposed to the Hongkong Government. As yet there is nothing positively known on this subject, and all speculation on rumours of this nature must be more or less unprofitable. Such an arrange. ment as has been suggested may be possible at Macao, especially if the Chinese Government have conceded, as a quid pro quo, the full sovereignty of Portugal over that Colony, but of this, as we have said, nothing is known. To Houghong no such guid pro quo can be offered, and the essential element in Sir Robert's scheme is said to be to place both colonies on the same fact. ing. Can he? What will the Canton authorities say and do if he does?

MR W. Scott, the hon. Secretary of the People's Concerts' Committee, sends us the following account of the Committee's stewardship :- The concerts were worked on the most economical lines-indeed extravagant ones were impossible—resulting in a credit balance now on hand of 80 or 70 dollars. This is to be handed over to the Temperance Hall, and with the $15 given for each of the seven concerts in name of rent, brings the grand total of our cash contribution up to close upon $200, whilst indirectly and through the indom less than $30, and it has been a standing subject of regret with us that we have

THREE men were arrested yesterday at the instance of the shopkeeper whose shop on the Praya West was invaded yesterday, on a charge of robbing him of goods to the value of $180. His story was not very plausible and was contradicted by the statement made by one of his mon to Sergeant Mann, who appeared on the scene a few minutes after the whistle was sounded. At that time it was said that only a few panes of glass had been breken to a steer brick The affair is said to have arisen like the disturbance in that vicinity two or three mont ago in a dispute between the Chinchew coolies and the Cantonese coolies about the hire for their labour, the former, it is said, being bent on underbidding the latter. The shopkeeper is a Chinchew man, and in defence of the prisoners it is stated that he had arrested them on this charge out of to the rules approved at the extraordinary | pure malice. | Several witnesses were with mined before Mr Mitchell-Innes this after-Hon. Says the San Francisco correspondent of the N.C. D. There is not a respectable man-a merchant, or lawyer, a doctor, or builder, or church member, or railroad official, or good citizen in fair standing--who does not denounce outrages on Chinamen. to deprive them of their living by the denunciations are private, and while labour meetings boil over with mean lies about the Chinese, the respectable classes hold their peace. Yestermans, more or less beer sodden, amused themselves by pelting a poor Chinese abusive when their pastime was checked. The other day, as the scholars of a Presbyterian Sunday school wors dismissed, two Chinese laundrymen passed; the Sunday school scholars found each a pill handy, and stoned the unfortunate foreigners out of sight. To stop these exhibitions of brutality a few sharp examples would be necessary, but no one has the courage to

THE PAY OF THE EUROPEAN POLICE.

While the Police Force is attracting so much public notice through the expose of the lukongs, it may not be amiss to call attention to a matter which, we hear, is eausing the gravest dissatisfaction among the members of the European division, and which, unless a remedy be soon applied, may lead to serious defections from its ranks. We are assured that this branch of the Force in its whole history was never so obtaining two balls of opium from Mr certa' Committee when next Season's Concerts are re- discontented as it is at the present mono actual dereliction of duty, but the men perform their tasks in a perfunctory, halfhearted manner which sooner or later will promotion; they make no attempt, or at least very little, to become better acquainted with the language and ways of the people; they feel little or no interest in the place, and their sole desire is to accumulate sufficient money as quickly as possible to enable them to leave the service as soon as or before their time is up. In the face of these facts, it is incumbent on the Government not only to entertain the application three years. of the men with regard to their grievance, Lieur.-Gen. The grievance is with regard to their remuneration. About two and a haif years ago, we think it is, the Government, in McDougall when attempting to resist their payment and service, and it before the mon as its last word on the subject. The men had previously been in receipt of $40 a month, with the privilege of sending home half their pay at the rate of 4/2 to the dollar. The has so turned the scale that the men who remained on the old terms are now receiving more in sterling than the men who secepted the new pay. For instance, a man receives $40. You other twenty are converted at 3/, equalling said then you were sorry for what you had £3, he receives in sterling money £7.3.4. The man who is paid 845 may equally desire to send the half of his salary home, but for his twenty-two and a half dollars only receives £3.7.6, 15/10 less than his neighbour does for his twenty. Convert the other twenty-two and a half dollarsat the same rate, and his total earnings in sterling will be found to amount to £6.16. To put it differently, the men who accepted cowardly process of the boycott, Yet the the increase have now to sacrifice the additional $5 and n arly $3 more in order to send home the same amount as their companions who are paid 840. This is the case of those men who were in the Force when the new scheme was introduced, and suffer most by the fall of the exchange that as they have made their own bed, so they must lie on it. But this is a view which no wise Government would adopt. It may also be urged that the Police are no worse off than the other Government servants, or the general public, and that they have no more reason to complain than others. We will endeavour to show that they are worse off. There are no other Crown servants in the Colony who are bound down to serve five years before they can even leave their employ; there are none who are compelled to serve fifteen years here before they are ontitled to a pension, and there are no Europeans who are so Besides these reasons, we imagine there are no other European Crown servants whose salaries bear the same ing positions at home. First-class constables in provincial forces at home receive £6 a month, and in the metropolitan police forces they are paid even the Hongkong force who would not be entitled to the rank of first-class at home, and yet their salaries here exceed the rates need to say anything more but asked services were urgently required. It is a century since the letters of an imaginary compatriot of Mr Loan Hi to his stay-at-home friend, Fum Hoam, took 'the town' by storm. Goldsmith's creation was very probably more witty, and he was certainly more didactio than the real observer who succeeds, but he was not more shrewd, and he was, of course, enormously less interesting. The author of 'The Deserted Village' wrote about us much more elequently than any Mongolian could have done, but we would have far preferred all the same to read what a genuine Chinaman had to say of us. We have such a commentary last. Mr Loan Hi dispenses praise and blame with an apparent aim at judicial impartiality, and it must be said that his exhibition of fairmindedness contrasts very favourably with the prejudiced and flippant spirit in which the Caucasian Smorltork commonly discourses about his neighbour. There is poetical retribution in his treatment of France and the French. Loan Hi gives us our revenge for Max O'Rell. France has lost all that once made her fascinating; even the gaiety of her capital has vanished, the Republic has brutalised and degraded as well as it has debilitated, and only the fatal vanity of the Gaul prevents him from seeing how contemptible he has become. Germany is more to be respected than liked. The German is wanting in the 'high graces of sweet demeanour.' The German woman is the least attractive female in Europe. German society is stiff and dismal. Conditions are much better in Austria. Italy is the pleasantest land, inhabited by the brightest people of the

upon the whole, so black as we are painted. The Four Thousand Golden Chapters of Perfect Etiquette would, it is true, be lost upon us. Such harmony is in Colostial souls, and in these slone. Moreover, as regards the capacity to appreciate the Fifty Thousand Military Maxims, we are not, as a species among us would phrase it, quite up to Dick ' that is to say, on a level with Ah Sin. Our political and economic systems have much that is primitive and not a little that is absurd about them. But for a parvenu people, a nationality of yesterday, we have managed to get on in a style calculated to excite sympathy, and even approval, if it be slightly provocative of derision. Socially we are as absurdly backward and uncouth as our brethren of the same branch. Every Englishman carries himself like a mandarin. Like the governor of a province, he could not betray a more complacent consciousness of personal merit if he knew the Six Hundred Books of the Sublime Moralities or had forced the French to retire from Tonquip. Our social life is degenerating. Our philosophers are bonzes : our writers confess t and lament it. The British matron is masculine, the British maiden is overbold. It was not so. There was a time when the women of England came nearest of all the sex outside the Great Wall and the Blue and Yellow Rivers and the sea, to their Chinese sisters, the poerless incarnation of female leveliness. We are going to the bad, like Peter Rylands. Loan Hi does not use the comparison because we have waxed fat and prosperous. With prosperity has come luxurious indulgence, and so our manners and morals, which of all the external races were, perhaps, least Amoy 29.84 81 87 NE 1 op 0.51 repulsive to the Chinese ideal, have grown coarse. The Court with the great Empress at its head sets an excellent example. Though the four hundred censors, whose function it is to keep perpetual watch and ward upon the movements and conduct of the Brother to the Sun, cannot be expected to exist where the grand conception of moral duty and observance is still in so rudimentary a state, still the influence of the throne is most salutary as far been flung at us. But when Loan Hi coolly not altered its character for centuries, there is nothing for it but to join issue with him on the spot. THE Wah Ts: Yet Po was Established in connection with the China Mail over ten years ago. The Business has hitherto been leased to Chinese. Since 1881 it has been leased to Mr. TAM YIK Kry, and the LEASE will Expine on the 1st or Sepremben of this year; after which the China Mail will take over the Business, and LEASE it to Mr. Ho Chung Shang under the same Conditions as heretofore, but the Staff will all be New. A learned and famous Scholar has specially been ongaged to take the position of Editor, and new arrangements will be made so as to secure a great improvement upon what the paper was

GENTLEMEN who have for years been, subscribing to this paper may rest assured that the paper will come to them without interruption and need make no change in regard to it. Referring to the Accounts with this Office for the insertion of Notices and for Subscriptions to the Paper, &c., all Debts due to him up to the 1sr or SEPTEMBER will be collected by the Old Lessee Mr. Tan Yik Kiu; and after the 1sr of September, they will be collected by the New Lessee Mr. Ho Chung Shane. This is the usual practice in such cases, and Subscribers are carnestly requested to take Goods on board Vessels and on Hulls of the necessary note of the Change of Lessee | Vessels in Harbour, at the usual Terms so as to avoid any mistake in payment.

Branch Office in any other place. On the 17th of June, Mr. Tam Yik Kiu | first class Lives up to £1000 on a Single | issued a Notice in an Extra saying :- 'The Life. Lease of this Office will soon expire and a good day will be chosen to remove to some other place, and when this Business is opened in the new house, the name will be changed, and it will be styled Wah Tso Tsit. Po, &c., &c. This statement is ambiguous, but it is evident that the intention is to imitate the name of this office, and indeed thereby it may easily mislead the readers. Now as Mr. TAM YIR KIU is a Lessee, he may say that the terms of his lease has expired, but it is impossible for him to say the lease of this office will soon expire, for the true sense of Mr. Tan Yik Kiu's statement would be : The Lorsd of the House occupied by this Office will soon expire, and, consequently, it will be rumoved to another house. And bosides, he says the name of this Office will be changed and it will be styled Wah Tsz Tsit Po. From enigmatic language like this it requires a clear-sighted man to find out the truth. It seems like an attempt to pass off a fish's eye for a

Now to tell the truth, The Wah Tsz Tsit Po is a New Establishment of Mr. Tam YIK KIU, and has no connection whatever with the Wah Ts: Yat Po; and hereafter Mr. Tam' YIR Kit has nothing to do with this Office at all, and Gentlemen are requested to distinguish this Office from his Establishment.

The types of this Office have been in uso for some years, and it is now arranged that when the Management of the Business is handed over to the NEW LESSEE, New Type will be supplied and will be ready in a short time. The New Editor of this Paper has already elsewhere given great satisfaction in a similar position to all concerned; and as New Types will be made, the Paper will be ten times more legible. It is hoped that Subscribers will kindly keep up their subscriptions, and that Scholars and Merchants will all kindly put their Notices in the paper. This Office under its New Management looks to them for their Patronage and Support; and in Order to secure the same this statement is published.
